

Margot Berg

Margot Berg has served as Public Art Director for the Office of Arts, Culture and Creative Economy since 2006. She oversees the City's Percent for Art Program – commissioning new site-specific public art in City construction projects – as well as the Public Art Conservation and Collection Management Programs.

Margot obtained a BA in sociology and urban studies from the University of Delaware and a Master's in City Planning from the University of Pennsylvania. She has over twenty years of experience in arts administration, including fourteen years in the field of public art in Philadelphia.