

Philadelphia's Permanent Harriet Tubman Statue Public Input Survey Results

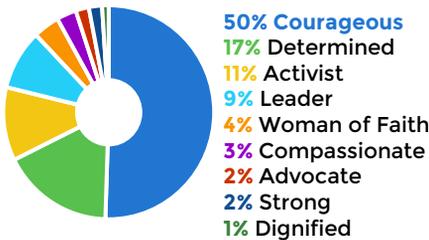

Survey open from June 22 to July 13, 2022
424 Total Responses

Public Input Survey Results

One of the roles of public art is to generate an emotional response. How should Philadelphia's permanent Harriet Tubman statue make you feel or respond? Select one word you think BEST describes this feeling.

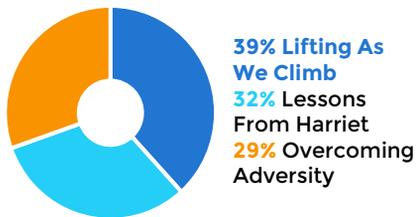

During the course of her heroic life, Harriet Tubman possessed many admirable qualities. Select one word you think reflects Harriet Tubman's MOST admirable quality.

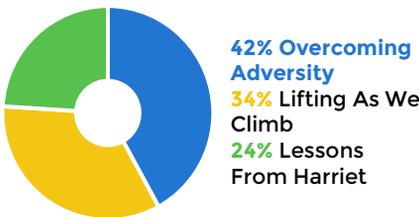

Philadelphia's permanent Harriet Tubman statue needs to speak to and engage all people of all ages, races, gender identities, etc. Which of the three (3) themes BEST speaks to diverse audiences?

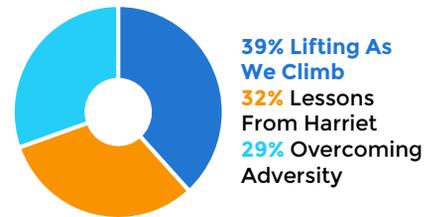

Which of the three (3) themes BEST reflects Harriet Tubman's most admirable qualities?

Which of the three (3) themes is MOST relevant to Philadelphia today?

Which of the three (3) themes will BEST stand the test of time 10, 20, or 50 years from now?

Harriet Tubman Statue Possible Theme Options

"Lifting As We Climb"

This theme is inspired by Harriet Tubman's story of being a Black woman who lifted and helped others throughout her life. It is a celebration of the power of Black women who uplift their families, communities, and cities every day. The phrase "Lift As We Climb" was the motto of the National Association of Colored Women (NACW), started in 1896. Harriet Tubman was a member and spoke at their inaugural meeting in Washington D.C.

"Lessons From Harriet"

This theme highlights lessons from Harriet Tubman's story that are relevant and impactful to our lives today. Her sacrifice, as she put herself in danger to save others; her service, as a liberator of the enslaved and a soldier and nurse in the Civil War; and her activism against slavery and fighting for the right to vote - are all lessons that should motivate and inspire us to be the Harriet Tubman of our time.

"Overcoming Adversity"

Harriet Tubman was Black, born into slavery, a woman, illiterate, and had head trauma that caused lifelong debilitating headaches, yet overcame all these adversities to impact history. This theme would use Harriet Tubman as an inspiration for how we can overcome the obstacles facing our communities today such as racial injustice, gun violence, and lack of quality education.